Sports

The desire to compete is innate to the human race, whether it is competition with one another or with nature to outwit that old mossy-back bass or track that twelve-pointer. This desire to compete and excel is responsible for the human phenomenon known as sports.

DONALD R. DIZNEY — Managing General Partner

On October 5, 1984 Donald R. Dizney purchased the Washington Federals of the United States Football League and has since relocated the franchise to Orlando, Florida.

Don Dizney was born in Pensacola, Florida and was educated in Kentucky participating in a variety of sports at Lynch High School and Western Kentucky University.

Dizney joined the staff of Humana, Inc. in 1966. Humana, based in Louisville, Kentucky is a pioneer in the privately owned hospital industry. Between 1968 and 1969 Dizney served as Florida Regional Director for Humana and was responsible for the development and operation of healthcare facilities. He then was promoted to Senior Vice President of Operations for more than 45 nursing homes and 10 hospitals.

In 1972, Dizney joined the senior management staff as Executive Vice President of CNA Financial Corporation's healthcare division which operated 75 facilities in fifteen states and was headquartered in Chicago.

He returned to Louisville in 1974 to form his own company, United Medical Corporation. Corporate headquarters for United Medical were relocated to Orlando in 1977 and today the company owns and operates a chain of acute care and psychiatric hospitals throughout the southeastern United States. Dizney currently serves as Chairman of UMC.

The company maintains their corporate office on the top floor of the Atlantic Bank Building and has a reputation for rapid growth and expansion. United Medical opened their latest psychiatric facility in Louisville, Kentucky the first week in January and is finalizing plans for the completion of several new psychiatric hospitals in Florida to commence construction in 1985.

"We have an extremely talented management staff," stated Dizney. "Our corporate office is made up of a number of young aggressive managers who challenge me on a daily basis," Dizney elaborated.

United Medical Corporation has established themselves in the health care delivery system and has capitalized on the growing consumer awareness of hospital services. "Our goals for the future are very simple; we will continue to develop new ways to deliver health care services to the consumer as efficiently and as economically as possible. The future looks very bright for UMC," concluded Dizney.

Don Dizney was one of the original pioneers in the development of the United States Football League as a limited partner in the Tampa Bay Bandits prior to their inaugural season in 1982. The growth and acceptance of the USFL and rapid expansion of the Orlando market created the ideal situation for Dizney, along with longtime partner Jim English and local investor John Day, to take advantage of the opportunity to acquire the Washington Federals. After only four months, the Orlando Renegades have recruited an almost entirely new group of athletes and management staff that promise an exciting season commencing in February.

Dizney has actively supported the Orlando community as Vice President and member of the Executive Committee of the Florida Citrus Bowl, serves on the Board of Directors for the University of Central Florida's annual fund raising cabinet, is Chairman of the School Athletic Committee and a member of the Executive Committee of the Knights Boosters.

In addition to his roles at United Medical and the Orlando Renegades, Dizney serves as Chairman for: Lifetron, Inc., a respiratory therapy and home health corporation; Destiny Corporation, a resort development company; Intermarine, Ltd., a marina development firm; and Venture Airways, a jet charter service. He is owner of Double Diamond Farm, which is a 375 acre thoroughbred training and breeding facility located in Ocala, Florida. Double Diamond is the home of many outstanding stallions including the 1982 Travers Stakes winner Runaway Groom, who made racing history by defeating Gato del Sol (Kentucky Derby Winner), Alomas Ruler (Preakness Stakes winner), and Conquistador Cielo (Belmont Stakes Winner and Horse of the Year).

Dizney is a member of the Board of Directors of the Loch Haven Art Center, active in a variety of civic and community organizations, and very much believes in the Orlando community and its potential for the future.

JAMES E. ENGLISH — General Partner

Jim English was born in Paducah, Kentucky and received a degree in Business Administration from Center College in 1964.

Upon graduation English was affiliated with a national "big eight" accounting firm. He joined the staff of Humana, Inc. 1969 as Director of Finance in the Nursing Home Division, and was responsible for the fiscal operation of more than 45 nursing homes.

English joined the management staff of Extendicare, Ltd. in Toronto, Canada in 1972 and as Senior Vice President/Operations was involved in a variety of responsibilities for the largest provider of skilled nursing care in Canada.

In 1976, English returned to Louisville, Kentucky and in partnership with Don Dizney joined United Medical Corporation. Elected President of UMC in 1980, he currently oversees the operation of a chain of acute care and psychiatric hospitals located throughout the southeastern United States.

Jim English is a founder of the Florida Citrus Bowl and a member of the Board of Governors of the Federation of American Hospitals. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for; Lifetron, Inc. a respiratory therapy and home health corporation; Destiny Corporation, a resort development company; Intermarine, Ltd., a marina development firm; and Venture Airways, a jet charter service.

Jim and his wife, Peggy, have two daughters and one son: Amber, Jacquelyn and Justin. Jim is an avid golfer, and also enjoys boating in his spare time.

JOHN DAY — General Partner

John Day was born in Orlando, Florida and received a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Vanderbilt University in 1965.

Upon graduation, Day returned to Orlando and accepted a position as an assistant plant engineer with the Orlando Utilities Commission. Approximately three years later, Day decided to go into business for himself, and entered the field of real estate development.

Currently, Day serves as Chief Executive Officer of the following: Day Enterprises, Inc., which owns and operates mobile home developments, including Starlight Ranch Mobile Home Estates and Audibon Village; Florida Restaurant, Inc., which owns two of Orlando's finest restaurants, The Villa Nova and Park Plaza Gardens; Day Development, which constructs single family homes; E.G.P., Inc., (Electro Graphic Products), the largest copy machine dealership in the southeastern United States, and the Central Florida Marine, Inc.

John Day is a founder of the Florida Citrus Bowl and President of the University Club in Orlando. He also serves on an advisory board for Sun Banks.

Day described his partnership with Don Dizney and Jim English in the Renegades' organization as a gift back to the city of Orlando.

"When Don approached me about the Renegades, I saw the opportunity to give Orlando something back. The rapid expansion and need for the businesses that I have developed has afforded me the opportunity to be successful, and I want to give something back," Day said.

John and his wife, Susie, have two daughters: Susan (17) and Mary (15).

Lewis "Bugsy" Engelberg V.P., General Manager

Lewis "Bugsy" Engelberg, one of the most respected names in the United States Football League was named Vice President and General Manager of the Orlando Renegades on October 12, 1984 by Managing General Partner, Donald R. Dizney.

For the past two years, he has been in charge of finding and signing players for the Tampa Bay Bandits, serving as their Director of Football Operations. A large part of the Bandits' success story could be attributed to Engelberg's talent for discovering unknown players.

Engelberg's football career began at East Tennessee St. Univ., where he played offensive guard. He injured his knee while playing and decided to follow a career in coaching.

Engelberg, transferred to Florida State in 1966 and served as a student coach and worked with the kickers. At FSU, Engelberg's first success was himself. He taught himself to be a kicking coach and may have been the first kicking or special teams coach in the history of FSU and professional football.

While at FSU, he took team manager, Grant Guthrie and turned him into a record-breaking kicker who went on to the pros. He also coached, punter, Duane Carrell and prepared him for a professional football career.

In 1968, Engelberg's coaching abilities were noticed by Coach John Rauch, and at the age of 21, Engelberg became the youngest man ever to coach in the NFL. Rauch took Engelberg on coaching assignments with the Oakland Raiders, Buffalo Bills and Toronto Argonauts (CFL).

In 1973, Engelberg moved on to the administrative level of professional football and was named Executive Vice President and Director of Player Personnel for the Jacksonville Sharks of the World Football League.

Engelberg understands what has to be done to put together a professional football team probably better than anyone else. He did it once for the Tampa Bay Bandits and is doing it again for the Orlando Renegades. He put it best when he accepted the job back in October and said "We're going to give Orlando a team it can accept with pride."

Along with his football accomplishments, Engelberg owns American Recovery Service, Incorporated.

Bugsy and his wife, Stephanie, have two sons: Mike (9) and Rick (6).

Michael Disney
Assistant General Manager

Michael Disney was born and raised in Kentucky and was educated at Eastern Kentucky University. He served in the United States Marine Corps and in 1974 served as Director of Operations for Vitatron Systems, a respiratory therapy management company, located in Louisville, Kentucky.

Michael then relocated to Orlando, Florida and served as co-pilot for D.E.T. Airways from 1977-1979. Disney was general manager of Bahia Beach Island Resort and Marina and was named vice president of Destiny Corporation, the parent company in 1982.

In 1983 he was elected vice president of Intermarine, Ltd., Inc. which owns and manages several Central Florida marinas.

Michael is a member of the board of directors of the Greater Orlando Sports Organizing Committee and has been a resident of Longwood, FL since 1982.

Tom Bland—Director of Player Personnel

As the Director of Player Personnel for the Orlando Renegades this year, Tom Bland along with General Manager, Lewis "Bugsy" Engelberg have had the task of constructing an entirely new football team in five short months.

Prior to coming to the Renegades, Bland worked with Engelberg in football operations with the Tampa Bay Bandits for the past two years.

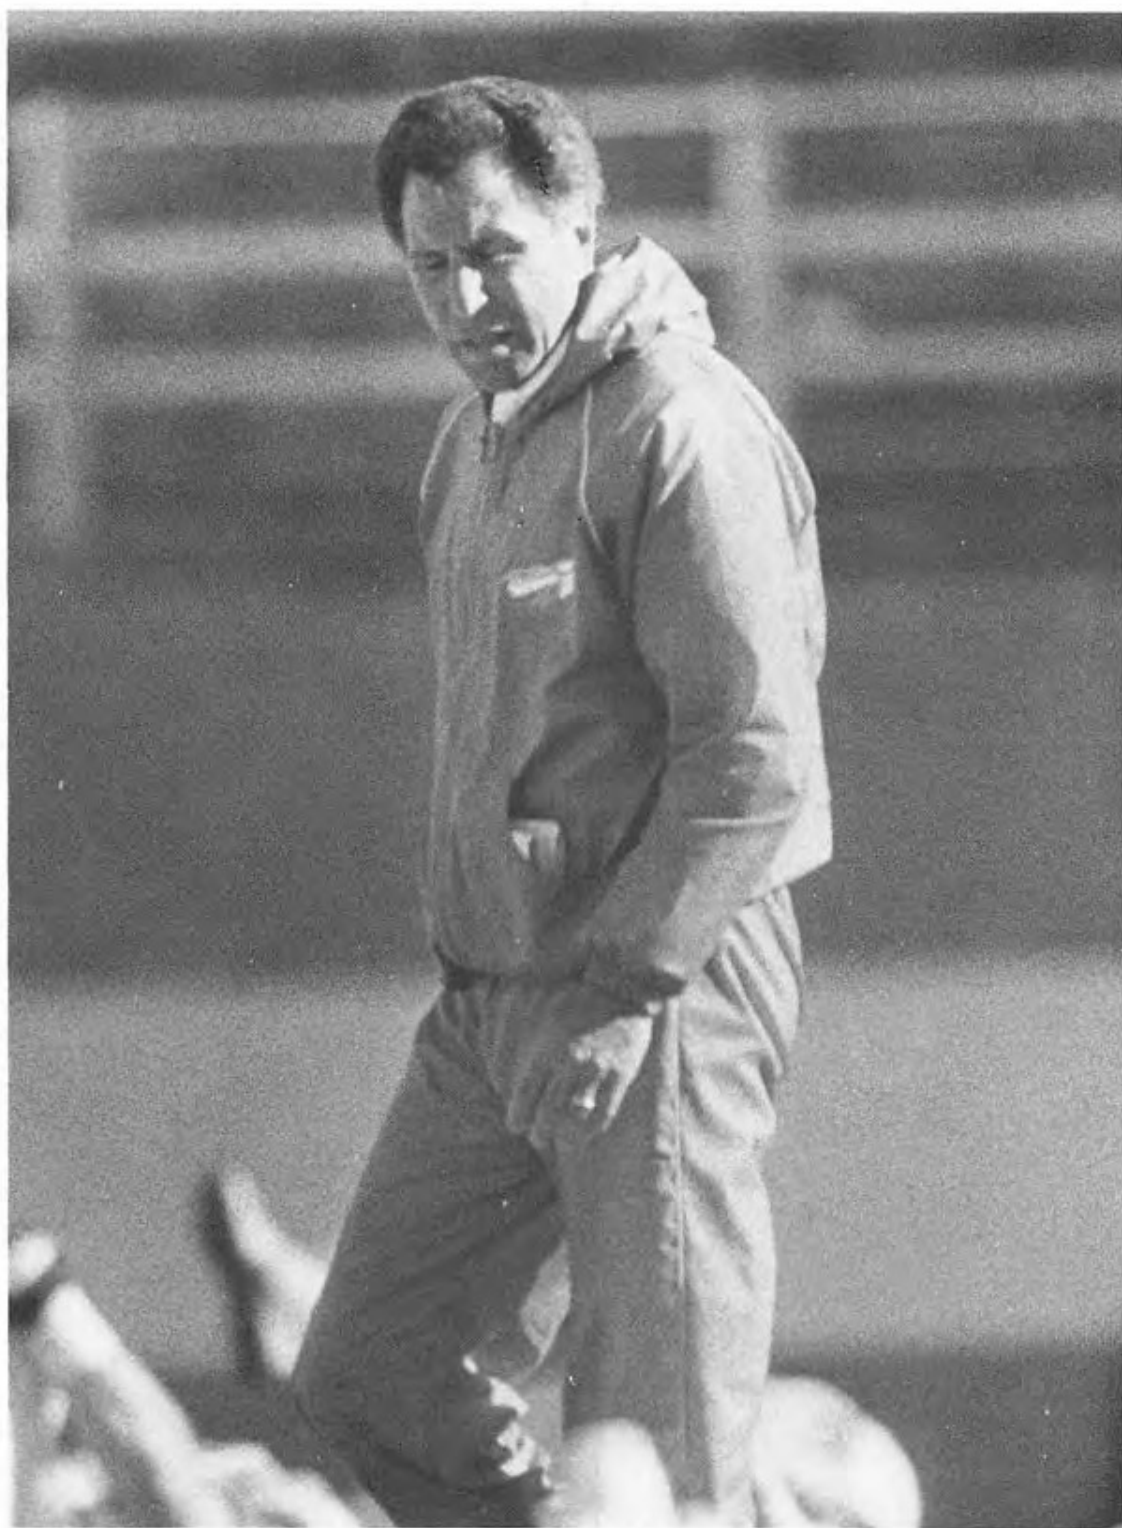

Before joining the United States Football League two years ago, Bland built a reputation for himself in Central Florida as the leading receiver for the Orlando Panthers of the Continental Football League in the early 1970's.

He was also a standout wide-receiver for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League in 1970-71.

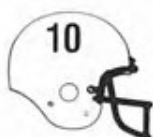

Bland also brings coaching experience to the Renegades, having coached at numerous Orlando high schools and at UCF before joining the Bandits in 1983.

Tom and his wife, Jane, have two children: Chip (22) and Sydney Allison (21).

LEE CORSO — Head Coach 1st Year

The phrase, "Nothing was ever achieved without enthusiasm," was comprised from the creative mind of the very complex Ralph Waldo Emerson. It has been taken on as a way of life for Head Coach Lee Corso, who will lead the Orlando Renegades into their inaugural USFL season.

Corso, 49, brings 26 years of college coaching experience to the Renegades. During those 26 years, Corso reconstructed several mediocre football programs and turned them into winners. He transformed a losing program at Indiana into one of high national ranking in just four years.

Corso knows how to accept a challenge and conquer it. He is an innovative and resourceful coach who is not afraid to gamble. His football philosophy is based on sound fundamentals which stress a strong defense, an offensive line that permits a balanced attack, and a sound kicking game.

His philosophy may sound typical, but Lee Corso is far from a typical coach. He likes to do the impossible, and prides his past accomplishments on that.

He spent 14 years as head coach at the University of Louisville (1962-72) and Indiana University (1973-82). He most recently served as the head man at Northern Illinois, where he coached the Huskies to a 4-4-1 1984 season before moving to Orlando. In his 15 years as a head coach in the collegiate ranks, he compiled a record of 73-83-6.

While at the helm of the program in Louisville, Corso finished with a record of 28-11-3. In his last 29 games, Corso was victorious in 22, lost five and tied two. He captured the Missouri Valley Conference titles in 1970 and 1972, and put the Cardinals into their first and only bowl, the Pasadena, and coached his team to a 24-24 tie against favored Long Beach State.

Corso's finest year at Louisville was undoubtedly 1972, where he finished with a record of (9-1) and ranked 16th and 17th nationally in the major wire service polls. Louisville led the nation that year in team total defense (202.5 yards per game) and rushing defense (82.1 ypg), plus ranked fifth in scoring defense (9.1 points-per-game) and 12th in scoring offense (30.9 ppg).

Corso moved from Louisville to tackle the challenge awaiting him at Indiana in 1973. In 1979, his Hoosiers secured Indiana University's initial bowl victory with a 38-37 triumph over Brigham Young, ranked 9th at the time and previously unbeaten. This dramatic conquest moved the Hoosiers into a national ranking (16th) for the first time since the 1967 Rose Bowl team.

Among his list of accomplishments, Corso can include three Big-Ten first division finishes (third in 1976, fourth in 1977 and 1979), and his 11 first-team All-Big Ten Players. He also produced Indiana's first back-to-back wins over Purdue in 30 years, and the Hoosiers' first ever West Coast victory over a PAC-10 club (a 20-13 victory over Washington in 1976).

Prior to turning to college coaching, Corso played and set a name for himself at Florida State University, where he lettered four times in football and baseball. He shined at both quarterback and defensive back for the Seminoles earning Honorable Mention All-America honors in 1956. He is also a member of the FSU Hall of Fame.

For his love of football, Corso opted to stay at FSU as frosh back-field aid in 1957 turning down any further contact with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cardinals who were interested in his athletic talents. Corso, realizing he had made the right decision to enter the college coaching ranks moved on to Maryland under Tom Nugent (1959-65) and assisted Bill Elias on his next stop at the U.S. Naval Academy (1966-68).

Corso has always been highly respected by his fellow coaches, and has served the American Football Coaches Association in many capacities on both the Ethics Committee and Rules Committee. He has been a member of the NCAA Public Relations Seminar and in 1978 and 1980 was on the NCAA pre-season tour of players and coaches. He coached in the All American Bowl, Japan Bowl (1978), and the East-West Shrine Classic (1983).

Along with his list of accomplishments in the football department, Corso can be credited with producing and directing his own highly rated television show for 15 years. He had success as a TV sports analyst in 1981, making his debut in a grand manner at the Holiday and Bluebonnet bowls. In 1983, he continued his commentating career by doing the color on the ABC telecasts of the initial USFL season. He has also been named to football's best dressed list the last four years.

A perpetual man on the move, Corso exudes boundless energy. He never slows or stops and is in great demand on the clinic and banquet circuit. He is highly sought as a speaker to business groups, usually on motivational topics.

Corso is a native of Cicero, Illinois, but spent a large part of his earlier life in the state of Florida. He was a three-sport all-stater and a 1953 graduate of Jackson High School in Miami, before going on to Florida State where he not only earned sports awards but also a degree in Physical Education in 1957 and a Masters in Administration and Supervision in 1958.

The challenge the Orlando Renegades present Corso, is the type the veteran coach enjoys. He looks to take one of the USFL's newest entries into their first year with style and class.

Assistant Coaches

JIM NIBLACK — Offensive Coordinator Offensive Line

Jim Niblack comes to the Renegades from the Buffalo Bills in the National Football League. He joined the Buffalo staff in 1983, following a successful tenure as head coach at Gainesville High School in Gainesville, Florida. He led the squad to the 1980 State championship and compiled an outstanding 152-33-6 record. Niblack served as the head coach at Gainesville from 1959-72 and then again from 1979-81.

He spent two seasons with the Jacksonville Sharks of the World Football League (1974-75) where he served as the defensive coordinator and also the assistant director of player personnel in his second year.

In 1976, he was the freshman coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida. In 1977, he moved on to the University of Kentucky as line coach.

After that, he spent a brief period in Florida before returning to Gainesville High School as head coach, athletic director and dean of students.

Niblack is a 1955 graduate of the University of Florida where he played tackle. He has a master's degree in school administration and has completed over 100 credit hours toward a doctorate.

Jim and his wife Nancy, have three sons: Jim, Richard and Scott.

FRANK LAUTERBUR — Defensive Coordinator Linebackers

Frank Lauterbur brings 35 years of coaching experience to the Renegades, including 11 seasons in the National Football League. Most recently, he served as the defensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Maulers. During his 11 seasons in the NFL he coached with the Baltimore Colts, the Los Angeles Rams and the Seattle Seahawks.

His football career began in 1943, at Oberlin College where he played guard. After a stint in the military, he finished his college career at Mt. Union in 1948. He coached at the high school level for four years and then on the collegiate level at Kent State University (1953-54) before taking his first pro assignment with the Baltimore Colts (1955-56).

In 1957, he returned to the college ranks and coached at West Point (1957-61), the University of Pittsburgh (1962) and the University of Toledo (1963). Lauterbur achieved national fame at Toledo as the Rockets captured three Mid-American Conference titles and twice finished with unblemished records, winning 23 consecutive games over the 1968-69-70 seasons. Lauterbur moved on to the University of Iowa (1971-73) where he served as head coach before rejoining the Baltimore Colts in 1974.

Lauterbur was a member of the Los Angeles Rams' staff (1978-81) that led the Rams into Super Bowl XIII against the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 1982, he moved on to the Seahawks organization and served as the defensive line coach.

Frank and his wife, Mary, have four children: Frank, Carol, Fran and Mary.

BILL LYNCH—Quarterbacks

Bill Lynch comes to the Renegades from Northern Illinois University, where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterback coach under head coach Lee Corso. At NIU, Lynch constructed a comprehensive offensive scheme utilizing a pro set and multiple formation attack.

Before joining Corso at NIU in January of 1983, Lynch served as the offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator for Butler University his alma mater.

He was perhaps the finest quarterback ever to play for Butler. In four seasons, he guided the Bulldogs to a 28-12 record and three Indiana Collegiate Conference titles. During his career, he set passing marks, finishing with 5,909 career air yards and 60 TD's and led the NCAA Division II with a 62.1 completion percentage (110-of-177) in 1976.

Bill and his wife, Linda, have three children: Billy (6), Kelly (4) and Joe (1).

STEVE MARIUCCI — Receivers

Steve Mariucci brings plenty of offensive experience to the Renegades. He most recently wore many hats at the University of Louisville, where he served as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterback coach.

Mariucci, 28, joined the staff at Louisville after serving three years as quarterback and special teams coach at Cal-State Fullerton. He began his coaching career as quarterback and running backs coach at Northern Michigan University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1976. Both of the units he guided at Northern Michigan (1978-79) led the nation in passing yardage per game at the Division II level.

An All-America quarterback for Northern Michigan in 1976 and 1977, Mariucci helped lead the Wildcats to the 1975 Division II national championship. He established new all-time total offense and passing yardage marks in the state of Michigan in his career at Northern Michigan, from which he also holds a master's degree in Health Education.

A native of Iron Mountain, Michigan, Steve is married to the former Gayle Wood.

BRUCE DeHAVEN — Running Backs Special Teams

Bruce DeHaven has been coaching in the USFL since its inaugural season in 1982 when he served as the special teams coach for the New Jersey Generals. Most recently, he coached the special teams and offensive line for the Pittsburgh Maulers.

His coaching career began in 1970 when he was named head coach at Oxford High School in Oxford, Kansas. In three years at Oxford, his teams compiled a 30-6 record. He then moved to Wichita Southeast High School in 1974 as defensive coordinator and remained 54-4 record in five seasons. While at Wichita, his teams won three state championships and finished as runners-up the other two seasons.

His college coaching career began at the University of Kansas in 1979. DeHaven spent three years at Kansas as recruiting coordinator and also coached the defensive backfield and offensive line. He also served as the head coach of the Kansas junior varsity team.

In 1980-81, he was offensive line coach for New Mexico State.

Bruce is married to the former Kathy Tobin.

RAY SHANDS — Defensive Line

Ray Shands was the first assistant coach hired by head coach Lee Corso. He brings a diverse football background to the Orlando Renegades' organization.

Prior to coming to Orlando, he served as the Indiana State Director for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Shands began his coaching career at the University of Louisville in 1969, where he coached the defensive line and outside linebackers for four years.

After leaving Louisville in 1973, he moved on to Indiana University where he coached the Hoosier's defensive line for ten consecutive seasons.

His football career shifted away from coaching in March, 1983, when he joined the Dallas Cowboys' organization as a scout. He remained only one year with Dallas before accepting the post with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Shands attended Tulsa University, where he played football for two years before transferring to Oklahoma Central State where he finished his education.

Ray and his wife, Darla, have two children: Scott (19) and Dee Dee (16).

JIMMY WARREN — Defensive Secondary

Jimmy Warren comes to the Renegades from Bethune-Cookman College where he coached the Wildcat's defensive backs for the past three years (1982-84). He not only brings coaching experience to the Renegades, but also brings 13 years of professional playing experience to the club.

He spent 13 years in the National Football League, as a defensive back for three different clubs beginning with the San Diego Chargers (1964-65), Miami Dolphins (1966-69) and Oakland Raiders (1970-74, and 1977).

Played his collegiate ball at the University of Illinois at Champagne, where in 1964 he was a member of the East All-American Team and the 1964 Rose Bowl Championship team.

Jimmy has three children: Jackie, Christopher, and Lakeisha.

a head trainer. He began his career at his alma mater the University of Chattanooga, where he served as a student trainer for four years.

Jim brings 25 years of solid experience to the Renegades having served as the head trainer at Louisville (1959-77) where he originally hooked up with Coach Corso (Corso was named head coach at Louisville in 1969). He moved on to the University of Indiana in 1977 and joined Corso's new staff and remained there until 1983 when he was contacted by Corso again.

Jim and his wife, Gloria, have two sons: James, Jr. (22), and Chris (21).

Training and Equipment

JIM BIBLE — Head Trainer

Jim was the first staff member hired by head coach Lee Corso. This says a great deal for Jim's abilities as

GLEN "BULL" NORMAN — Equipment Manager

Born on November 3, 1962, Glen is the youngest equipment manager in professional sports today. At the age of 22, he brings five years of pro experience to the Renegades.

Most recently, Bull served as the assistant equipment manager for the Tampa Bay Bandits (1984). Prior to hooking up with the Bandits, he assisted the Cincinnati Reds for two years at their spring training camp located in Central Florida. He also spent time with the Lakeland Tigers and the Daytona Beach Astros.

Bull is single, and resides in Orlando. His hobbies include reading and traveling.

The Orlando Renegades are under the expert care of the 11 surgeons of the Jewett Orthopaedic Clinic. The Jewett Orthopaedic Clinic has been an integral part of traditional health care in Central Florida for nearly half a century. The Clinic houses the eleven highly qualified orthopaedic surgeons who subspecialize in many areas of individual interest including total hip and knee replacement, feet and ankle, back, spine, shoulder, small bone joint repair, rehabilitation and sports medicine. The four physicians highlighted are recognized for their expertise in sports medicine.

The Clinic will provide the Renegades with a comprehensive range of special facilities, including a large ultra-modern physical therapy department, that will help speed recovery from injury or surgery. The Clinic also has its own cat scanner, an important diagnostic tool that is not usually found outside major hospitals.

Through the dedicated team of physicians, nurses, therapists and support staff, the Orlando Renegades can look forward to the very best medical attention throughout the season.

Commissioner,
United States Football League

Harry L. Usher, a prominent Los Angeles attorney, is the new commissioner of the United States Football League.

The 45-year-old Usher comes to the USFL from his position as vice president and general manager of the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee. In that post, Usher oversaw the overall operating responsibilities for the XXIII Olympic Games, held this past summer in Los Angeles. The Games of the XXIII Olympiad were widely acclaimed as one of the most successful athletic competitions in history. Usher had served the LAOOC since February 1, 1980.

Usher attended Brown University and played varsity football and baseball, while being selected to Phi Beta Kappa. He graduated from Stanford Law School in 1964 as a member of the Order of the Coif, the national legal honor society. Usher was also an editor of the Stanford Law Review.

He was President of the Beverly Hills Bar Association from 1976-77 and was a member of the Association of Directors for eight years, from 1970-78. He was also a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association Board of Trustees in 1975-76, an officer of the State of California Barristers Association from 1973-76, and a member of the Los Angeles Copyright Society.

Usher joined the Los Angeles law firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher after admission to the state bar, and later became a partner with the Beverly Hills firm of Kaplan, Livingston, Goodwin, Berkowitz and Selvin. He formed the Beverly Hills firm of Litz & Usher in 1974. Usher came to the LAOOC from his legal practice, where his specialty was entertainment law.

Usher enjoys tennis, skiing and playing classical piano. He and his wife, JoAnn, are the parents of four children, three daughters and a son.

*THE SPORTING NEWS All-USFL Team includes 12 defensive players (four linemen and four linebackers) because of the mixed used of the 4-3 and 3-4 defense.

HISTORY OF THE ORLANDO FRANCHISE

May 11, 1982 — Formation of the United States Football League is announced at a New York City press conference. The twelve charter franchises are Boston, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Chicago, Washington, Tampa Bay, Oakland, Denver, Arizona, Los Angeles, Detroit, and Birmingham.

July 21, 1982 — Washington owner Berl Bernhard names James M. Gould as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer and Dick Myers as General Manager and Executive Vice President.

August 24, 1982 — At a press conference in Washington, owner Berl Bernhard announces the name "Federal" and the team colors — kelly green and white trimmed with black and silver. General Manager Dick Myers announces the appointment of Ray Jauch as the Federal's head coach. Jauch coached 12 seasons in the Canadian Football League and leaves the CFL as the league's fourth winningest coach.

October 21, 1982 — Federal's sign a contract with WMAL Radio, an ABC owned station in Washington, to broadcast live its entire 18-game schedule.

January 31, 1983 — USFL training camps open across the country with the Federal's inaugural camp located at the Gator Bowl Complex in Jacksonville, Florida. A total of 90 players report to opening drills.

February 16, 1983 — Federal's scrimmage the Birmingham Stallions in the Gator Bowl, the first organized competition in the club's history.

March 3, 1983 — At a press conference at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, Federal's announce the signing of former all-Canadian Football League receiver Joey Walters to an undisclosed contract. Walters caught a CFL record 101 passes in 1982 with Saskatchewan.

March 27, 1983 — Federal's record first win ever, beating the Michigan Panthers, 22-16, in overtime at RFK Stadium.

May 26, 1983 — Federal's President James M. Gould resigns to accept position with John Bassett Enterprises. Bassett is the majority owner of the Tampa Bay Bandits. Karen W. Randall is later named Chief Operating Officer.

July 1, 1983 — Charles Garcia is named Federal's Director of Player Personnel and Assistant General Manager. He replaced Mike Faulkner, who resigned in March to take a position with the New York Jets. Garcia leaves a scouting position with the Cleveland Browns to join the Federal's.

October 18, 1983 — USFL ownership approves a new divisional alignment and playoff format for 1984. Federal's will play in the Atlantic Division of the Eastern Conference, along with Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and New Jersey.

January 23, 1984 — Federal's second training camp opens at St. Leo College in St. Leo, Florida.

February 26, 1984 — Federal's open second season in the Gator Bowl and lose to the Jacksonville Bulls, 53-14.

February 29, 1984 — Ray Jauch is fired as Federal's Head Coach. Offensive Coordinator Dick Bielski is named to succeed Jauch.

May 9, 1984 — Sherwood "Woody" Weiser announces that he intends to purchase the Federal's from Berl Bernhard for an estimated $6 million.

October 5, 1984 — Don Dizney announces at first press conference that he has purchased the Washington Federal's and is moving the franchise to Orlando.

October 12, 1984 — Bugsy Engelberg is named Vice President and General Manager of the Renegades. Engelberg comes to the Renegades from the Tampa Bay Bandits where he was in charge of football operations.

October 12, 1984 — Veteran football player and coach Tommy Bland is named Director of Player Personnel. Bland assisted Engelberg in Tampa.

October 19, 1984 — The name Orlando Renegades is officially announced, approved and registered by the USFL.

October 20, 1984 — Tickets for the Renegades officially go on sale.

November 6, 1984 — At a press conference in Orlando, Managing General Partner, Don Dizney, announces the appointment of Lee Corso as head coach of the Orlando Renegades. Corso brings 25 years of coaching experience to the Renegades. Dizney also announces the team colors — red, blue and gray, and the team's logo, the tomahawk.

November 8, 1984 — Renegades reach an agreement with WKIS NEWSTALK (740 AM) to broadcast live it entire inaugural season.

November 13, 1984 — Renegades reach an agreement with WFTV Channel 9 to produce a weekly coach's show and to telecast available games during the pre-season and regular season.

November 17, 1984 — Renegades hold their first free agent tryout camp, at the University of Central Florida, and 600 players showed up to try-out.

November 26, 1984 — Renegades sign quarterback Jerry Golsteyn. Golsteyn brings the experience of five NFL campaigns to the Renegades.

January 16, 1985 — Renegades hold their first mini-camp at Orlando Stadium.

January 17, 1985 — Renegades and WKIS NEWSTALK (740 AM) announce that David Steele, voice of the Florida Gators, will call the play-by-play. Tom Korun will provide the color analysis, and Sam Behr will provide commentary from the stands and in the radio booth.

January 21, 1985 — Renegades open their first training camp at Orlando Stadium.

January 24, 1985 — Renegades announce that the Jewett Orthopaedic Clinic will provide orthopaedic and rehabilitative care for the team.

January 26, 1985 — Renegades hold their first intra-squad scrimmage at Orlando Stadium.

February 3, 1985 — Renegades first pre-season game against the Baltimore Stars at the Spec Martin Stadium in Deland, Florida.

MEDIA INFORMATION

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be made to the Orlando Renegades Director of Public Relations at least one week prior to the game. Requests for parking permits should be included at that time.

CREDENTIALS: Space for working press, radio, television, and scouts is allocated by the Orlando Renegades Public Relations Office. All requests for working credentials should be directed to this office in writing at least one week prior to the game. The Renegades will maintain press facilities on both levels of the stadium press box. Level one is the main working press box. Approximately 71 seats are available on this level. The stat crew, press box P.A. announcer, and both P.R. Directors will be located on this level. Also on level one will be the Renegades radio network, television booth and both team's coaches. There is elevator service to both levels. All working press and scouts should enter Gate G on the southwest side of the stadium.

POLICIES: Working press will be admitted to the press box, where approximately 71 seats are available. Credentials will be issued by the Renegades according to the following criteria. (A) Local daily newspaper, wire services, national publications, newspapers from throughout the Renegades franchise area. (B) Other daily newspapers with preference to those which regularly cover the Renegades/USFL. (C) Scouts. (D) Non-daily newspapers with preference to those which regularly cover the Renegades/USFL. (E) Radio and television personnel not actually broadcasting, but considered reporting. (F) Monthly publications, magazine and other media.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Only accredited photographers will be issued credentials. The photo deck of the press box offers an unobstructed view for TV, movie and still cameras. Only freelance photographers on specific assignments will be issued passes. A media table will be set up on the southwest corner of the field for photographers. There will be food, beverages and printed information available.

SERVICES: Play-by-play, halftime and complete statistics will be provided. When possible, post-game comments from the coaches and players will be available. Refreshments will be available.

TELEPHONES: There are three pay telephones and limited direct dial phones available for visiting press. If you desire a separate phone, please contact the Orlando Renegades Public Relations Office for a contact and seat assignment.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON: Every Monday; (or Tuesday if appropriate) the Renegades will have a weekly press luncheon with Head Coach Lee Corso. All media are welcome.

CONFERENCE CALLS: Throughout the season, we will set-up a conference call each week for local Renegade media with the opposing coach and/or player. These will usually be held on Wednesdays.

LOCKER ROOM POLICY: The Renegades locker room will be closed to the press for 7 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Head Coach Lee Corso and his staff will be available after that for interviews.

Orlando Renegades on Television

Mike Storms

abc WFTV 9

The Orlando Renegades can be seen throughout the 1985 USFL season on both national and local television. For the third straight year, ESPN and ABC will offer a full schedule of televised USFL action.

ESPN will televise an average of three USFL games a week under the direction of Executive Producer Bill Fritts. Games will be seen every Saturday and Monday nights and either Thursday or Friday evenings.

Jim Simpson and Paul Maguire, the network's primary team for United States Football League telecasts the past two seasons, will be joined this spring by five commentators whose "experience and knowledge of the USFL will further enhance our efforts," according to Scotty Connal, ESPN executive vice-president and chief operating officer.

In addition to Simpson, Roger Twibell of ESPN and Fred Manfra, who has worked the past two USFL seasons for ABC Radio, will call the play-by-play. Twibell has done Miami Dolphins and New England Patriots pre-season games in the past.

Joining Maguire as analysts will be

Mike Adamle, a former college and pro player who has covered the USFL (ABC) and the NFL (NBC); Marv Levy, former head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs and Chicago Blitz whose broadcasting experience includes stints at ABC Radio and NBC television; and Ed Biles, former Houston Oilers head coach who has broadcast Houston Gambler games on radio as well as college football for ESPN.

The Renegades have the possibility of being seen on ESPN 14 times during the course of their inaugural season.

ABC will televise on Sunday afternoons and additionally provide coverage of post season play, plus the third USFL Championship Game, scheduled for Sunday, July 14, 1985. Keith Jackson will call the play-by-play for the key ABC game of the week.

Locally, WFTV-TV Channel 9 will broadcast the Renegade's available home and away games. Mike Storms, sports director will call the play-by-play and will co-host the coach's show. Glen Dehmer also of WFTV will add the color analysis.

The Orlando Renegades can be heard on WKIS NEWSTALK (740 AM) and the Florida Network during the inaugural season. Calling the play-by-play action will be David Steele, the voice of the Florida Gators for the past three years and host of both coach's shows at Florida.

Tom Korun, former WESH-TV anchor, will handle color analysis. Korun was also the managing editor and host for the magazine show "Good Sports."

Local personality Sam Behr will be the third part of the Broadcast team, providing commentary in the stands and radio booth for WKIS NEWSTALK 74 and the Renegades network.

"Sports Talk" host Chris Russo will provide the halftime re-cap and post-game program. The post-game show will provide Renegade fans the opportunity to comment on the game.

Larry Guest, sports editor of the Orlando Sentinel will provide an in-depth analysis utilizing his journalistic talents in a pre-game show. Guest has won assorted writing awards, in-house, state and national. He recently placed among the nation's best 25 sports writers in a poll conducted by the Washington Journalism Review. In addition, Guest was named Florida Sports Writer of the Year for 1982 and 1983 in a vote of the state's writers supervised by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

YOU HUNGRY?

We start with sizzling hot flame-broiled beef. We add fresh tomato, crispy lettuce, crunchy onion—and other tasty fixin's. And then we serve it just the way you want it.
